The Friends of Tom Cetrone NEED your help! Tom has been battling ALS (commonly known as Lou Gerhig's Disease) for 4 years.

You may know Tom from either his childhood in Brigantine, his days playing football and baseball at HOLY SPIRIT HS (Class of 1982), the racquet clubs at Resorts, Tilton or Greate Bay, his current hometown of Linwood, his many years as a successful insurance producer with Chris Ferry Insurance Agency or the numerous community and charitable Organizations to which he donated his time and efforts, including UNICO and Kiwanis. Maybe you know Tom through his wife, Kirsten (n. Kelley) or his two daughters, Mary Ellen (age 9) and Gabrielle (age 6).

Come out and support Tom in his battle against ALS
